again they rolled in the mud in desperation. When time was finally called the score still stood 3 to 0.

There was a pathetic silence from the Princeton stands as the players left the field, and Helen felt that the Harvard shouts of victory must have sounded very bitter to the defeated team.

Snake Dance.

"Now watch 'em do the snake dance," and Warren nodded toward the mass of Harvard students who rushed down pell-mell from their seats, hurled the fence and swarmed over the field.

Headed by their band and under the command of their cheer leader, they began a victorious serpentine march over the gridiron, dancing and yelling like wild Indians.

When they marched under the goalposts each student, with a whoop, hurled his hat high over his head.

At least a thousand darbies, fedoras and caps went spinning through the air. Most of them were caught as they came down, but rarely by the owners, and many were trampled in the mud.

As they made their way down from the grand stands to the din of Harvard's victorious paucans Helen thought of the defeated team, who had fought just as bravely and who had failed of victory by one lucky play.

It seemed so small a thing—that one chance kick on which to base this gloating jubilee. There seemed an element of unfairness in such a game. She tried to express something of this to Warren, but he cut her short.

"Hush, no sentiment to football! A game's a game, and the best team wins."

But Helen, who had refused to wear to the grounds the insignia or colors of either college, now stooped to pick up a discarded Princeton pennant. For she could not see trampled on the colors of a team that had fought so valiantly and so well.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmothers made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.—Advertisement.

Does Mercilessly Driving the Scarlet Woman Redound to God's Glory?

Rev. A. W. Elliott, President The Southern Rescue Mission, Atlanta, Ga., has just completed one of the most interesting, complete and truthful books that has ever been written upon the social evil; no one can deny this after perusing its pages.

He does not say that these women should be driven hither and thither by a band of sinful men, for if he did he would advocate a thing that Jesus Himself did not do. "Jesus was unable to organize a band for the condemning of fallen women," says Rev. Elliott; "He failed to find a single man that was clean enough to take a hand in a crusade against unfortunate women."

"God will not bless those who are not working strictly for His glory. It certainly cannot be for God's glory to mercilessly hound a sinful woman, when sinful man is to do the hounding," he says.

Mr. Elliott is the founder of The Southern Rescue Mission and has given six years to rescue work, having entered more than three thousand houses of ill-fame, and talked face to face with over fifteen thousand women of the underworld, embracing a territory throughout the United States. He admits that he helped form the sentiment that resulted in the closing of the restricted district, which he states has done society a grave injustice because these women have been liberally spread all over every section of the various cities. Just recently Elliott made a tour of the country as far north as Chicago and west to California investigating results of the closing of the districts, for the purpose of writing intelligently the final pages of his book "The Cause Of The Social Evil and The Remedy."

The book gives a full and truthful analysis of the causes of the downfall of women as well as a sane method of handling them, and should be read by every person who is interested in the welfare of the young and who believes in justice to all.

The price of the book is $1.00 net or $1.10 by mail postpaid, but those ordering at once enclosing $1.00 will receive a copy postpaid.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Takes a glass of Sals before breakfast if your back hurts or bladder is troubling you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys. They become overworked, from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headache, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Sals from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous Sals is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Sals is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Advertisement.

The Beautiful Combination of Tulle and Fur—Two flounces of black tulle edged with skunk form the double tunic, which slopes upward from back to front over a draped skirt of black charmeuse; the wide cuffs and the filling in of the décolletage are of Limerick lace.

A Model in Very Pale Blue Satin With White Tulle—A graceful effect is obtained by this method of arranging the tulle in points back and front, the tips being trimmed with an edging of crystal pearls; a band of this same trimming appears under the tulle of the bodice.

Married Life's Troubles

Helen Sits in the Pouring Rain to Watch a Muddy, Fecocious Game of Football.

BY MABEL HERBERT UMER

"O H, he's hurt! He's hurt!" Helen clutched Warren's arm in quivering excitement.

A murmur of horror rippled through the packed stands as both teams bent over the unconscious player, whose mud-stained jersey bore the black and yellow Princeton stripes.

Now a trainer came running out with bucket and towels. A brief hovering over the injured man and he was carried from the field.

"May not be much hurt," commented Warren. "Probably just knocked the wind out of him."

The substitute who was rushed on was given a rousing cheer by the Princeton stands.

And the game went on. To Helen

GO TO THE RESCUE

Don't Wait 'Till It's Too Late—Follow the Example of an El Paso

Rescue the aching back.

If it keeps on aching, trouble may come.

Often it indicates kidney weakness.

If you neglect the kidneys' warning.

Look out for urinary disorders.

This El Paso citizen will show you how to go to the rescue.

Mrs. E. Jones, 221 N. Campbell St., El Paso, Texas, says: "I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, as I know of three cases among my own people where they have given splendid results. One of the family would get down with her back and be severely troubled by other kidney disorders. Doan's Kidney Pills greatly helped her. She told of her experience to another who suffered a great deal from pain in her back, especially when on her feet and Doan's Kidney Pills brought good results in that case. We are strong believers in the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills."
